FOREWORD

"I will sing unto the Lord as long as I live: I will sing praise to my God while I have my being. My meditation of him shall be sweet: I will be glad in the Lord" (Psalm 104:33, 34).

That is what Choruses and Scripture Songs is all about. It is another aid for persons of every age everywhere to sing, to meditate, and to be glad in the Lord.

Chord symbols are helpful for those who use the chord organ, autoharp, accordion, guitar, or ukelele.

Every effort has been made to give proper credits to copyright owners. Any corrections necessary will be made in future printings.

1. How lovely on the mountains are the feet of Him who brings good news, good news. Announcing peace, proclaiming news of happiness, saying to Zion, "Your God reigns, your God reigns, your God reigns, your God reigns, your God reigns."

2. He had no stately form, He had no majesty, that we should be drawn to Him. He was despised and we took no account of Him, Yet He reigns with the Most High. Now he reigns, now He reigns, now He reigns with the Most High.

3. It was our sin and guilt that bruised and wounded Him. It was our sin that brought Him down. When we like sheep had gone astray, our Shepherd came and on His shoulders bore our shame. On His shoulders, on His shoulders, on His shoulders He bore our shame.

4. Meek as a lamb that's led out to the slaughter-house, Dumb as a sheep before it's shearer. His life ran down upon the ground like pouring rain, that we might be born again. That we might be, that we might be, that we might be born again.

5. Out from the tomb He came with grace and majesty, He is alive, He is alive. God loves us so, see here His hands, His feet, His side. Yes, we know, He is alive, He is alive, He is alive, He is alive, He is alive.
